Leader: We give thanks for this day
that unites us as a community.

All: We give thanks for our friends and families who support and love us.

Leader: We give thanks for our teachers and classmates who guide us and learn with us.

All: We give thanks for the holiness of Shabbat, which reminds us to pause, to be, rather than to do.

Leader: We give thanks for this moment of connection to generations who have preceded us, and to generations who will follow.

All: May the words we speak and the melodies we sing unite us. May they guide us to pursue kindness, compassion, and justice.

Leader: May our time together inspire us to cultivate peace and contentment within ourselves and throughout our world.

Reading #1 (Honored Guest)

A student spent many years studying with a learned Rabbi in a far away town. When he finally returned home, the townspeople gathered around to greet him. After hearing about his vast studies, which covered Hebrew, Talmud, Torah, values (middot), social action (tikkun olam) and more, one of the youngsters asked, "What was most important to your teacher?"

The disciple thought for several moments and then replied: "Whatever he happened to be doing at the moment."

Reading #2 (Honored Guest)

For spiritual development,

One needs access

To the enjoyment of the beauty of nature,

Such as the contemplation of flower-decorated meadows,

Majestic mountains and flowing rivers.

For all these are essential to the spiritual development of even the holiest of people.

- Rabbi Abraham ben Maimonides, Egypt, (1186-1237)
Quoted in Ha-Mispik La-Avodat ha-Shem, p.165

To Ponder: Why is nature “essential to spiritual development?”

Why are books not enough? What do “flower-decorated meadows and majestic mountains and flowing rivers” teach us that classrooms cannot?

Reading #3 (Honored Guest)

A student once asked Rabbi Joshua,
"Why did God choose a thorn bush from which to speak to Moses?"

He answered, "To teach you that no place is devoid of the divine Presence, not even a thorn bush."

- Midrash Exodus Rabbah 2.5 Land of Israel c. 1000 CE

*To Ponder: What is your most holy place? Is there a place
"devoid of the Divine Presence?"*

And all these words, which I read today, shall be upon my heart.

And I shall teach them diligently to my children. And I shall speak of them when I sit in my house, When I walk by my way, and when I lie down, and when I rise up.

And I shall bind them for a sign upon my hand.
And they shall be for frontlets between my eyes.

And I shall write them on the doorposts of my house and upon my gates.

(Based on Deuteronomy 6:5-9)

To Ponder: Translated literally, the V'ahavta is a series of commands, “You shall...” How does changing the wording to “I shall...” affect your experience of the prayer?

Reading #4 (Honored Guest)

Standing on the parted shores of history
We still believe what we were taught
Before ever we stood at Sinai’s foot;

That wherever we go, it is eternally Egypt
That there is a better place, a promised land;
That the winding way to that promise
Passes through the wilderness.

That there is no way to get from here to there
Except by joining hands, marching together.

-Michael Walzer, adapted

Optional Readings

Read aloud by honored guests or presented as silent reading options for the congregation:

Optional Reading #5

Master of the Universe, grant me the ability to be alone; may it be my custom to go outdoors each day among the trees and grass - among all growing things - and there may I be alone, and enter into prayer, to talk with the One to whom I belong.

May I express there everything in my heart, and may all the foliage of the field -- all grasses, trees, and plants -- awake at my coming, to send the powers of their life into the words of my prayer so that my prayer and speech are made whole through the life and spirit of all growing things, who are made as one by their transcendent Source. May I then pour out the words of my heart before your presence like water, Adonai, and lift up my hands to You in worship, on my behalf, and that of my children!

- Rebbe Nachman of Bratslav (1772-1810)

To Ponder:

Rebbe Nachman felt spiritually awaken when in nature. Where do you feel spiritually alive?

Optional Reading #6

When God created the first human beings,
God led them around the Garden of Eden and said:
“Look at my works!
See how beautiful they are - how excellent!
For your sake I created them all.
See to it that you do not spoil My world:
For if you do, there will be no one else to repair it.”

- Midrash Ecclesiastes Rabbah on 7:13 800 CE

To Ponder:

Are you surprised that this environmentally aware statement was written in 800 CE?

Optional Reading #7

Awe, rather than faith, is the cardinal attitude of the religious Jew.

- Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel (1907-1972)

To Ponder:

Where and when do you experience awe? How can you use that moment to enhance your Jewish experience?

Optional Reading #8

These things I know:
How the living go on living
And how the dead go on living with them.
So that in a forest
Even a dead tree casts a shadow
And the leaves fall one by one
And the branches break in the wind
And the bark peels off slowly
And the rain seeps in through the cracks

And the trunk falls to the ground
And the moss covers it
And in the spring the rabbits find it
And build their nest

Inside the dead tree
 So that nothing is wasted in nature
 Or in love."

- Laura Gilpin, appeared in Kol Haneshma, 2000.

To Ponder:
When you face mortality, yours or someone else's, where do you find comfort?

We pause for a few moments

*On Three Things the World Stands:
On Torah, on Service and on Loving Deeds*

Option One

The Torah is passed from Grandparents to Parents to Bar or Bat Mitzvah

Bar or Bat Mitzvah: Sh'ma Yisrael Adonai Eloheinu, Adonai Echad!	שְׁמָעَا יִשְׂרָאֵל ייְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ, יְהוָה אֶחָד:
All: Echad Eloheinu, Gadol Adoneinu, Kadosh Sh'mo.	אֶחָד אֱלֹהֵינוּ גָדוֹל אֲדוֹנוּנוּ, קָדוֹשׁ שָׁמוֹ.

The immediate family joins the Bar or Bat Mitzvah in the Torah processional around congregation.

Those within reach, may choose to touch the Torah mantle (cover) with their tzitzit (tallit fringes) if they are wearing a tallit or a prayerbook if they are not. They then kiss the tzitzit or prayerbook, which touched the Torah scroll. This is an expression of love and affection for the great gift of Torah.

Option Two The community holds the Torah in a large circle

The community makes a large circle. Everyone who wishes to participate stands in a tight circle, shoulder to shoulder. The Rabbi unscrolls the Torah and congregants carefully hold the Torah at the top and bottom. We hold the Torah with concentration and care, in order to protect it from ripping. Those who do not wish to hold the Torah or are unable to hold the Torah need not feel uncomfortable stepping to the side or standing behind someone in the circle. The entire congregation is honored as some of us hold the Torah physically and all of us hold it spiritually. Please do not let go of the Torah until the Rabbi rescrolls the Torah from your hands.

The vestments are removed.
 The Gabbai is called forward.
 Honored guests are asked to hold the section of Torah that will be read.

All: Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech haolam, hamotzi lechem min ha'aretz.	ברוך אָתָה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, הַפֹּזֶצְיָה לְחֵם מִן הָאָרֶץ:
Praised be our Eternal God, who brings forth the bread from the earth.

To Ponder:

Does bread really come from the earth? What are the steps that must happen for us to eat bread? So, who does this prayer really thank?
