

1. Oseh Shalom

Oseh shalom bim'romav, hu ya-aseh shalom
Aleinu v'al-kol-Yisrael, v'imru: Amen.
Ya-a-seh shalom, ya-a-seh shalom
Shalom a-lei-nu v'al kol Yisraeil
May peace rise up and spread like wildflowers.

2. It is Never Too Late

The last word has not been spoken,
the last sentence has not been written,
the final verdict is not in.
It is never too late
to change my direction,
to say no to the past,
and yes to the future,
to offer remorse,
to ask and give forgiveness.

It is never too late to start over again,
to feel again
to love again
to hope again...
-Rabbi Harold Schulweis

3. Turning

The New Year came,
But I, so busy wiping sticky jelly off my little ones
faces
And the house a mess
And my inbox overflowing with unanswered emails,
I, consumed with the project due last week, now late Heard the holy words and Echoes of tekkiah blasts
But could not slow down enough to catch them.

And next I noticed,
Snow was falling
And I was digging wax from the menorah for this year's Chanukah candles.
I turned to turn the latkes
and noticed a new year had arrived.
"Shana Tova," I said to no one.
And promised this would be the year
I would slow down.

7. G'vurot

We pray that we will stand where it will have been right to have stood.

True to what we believe, aligned with what we value.

We pray for love to encompass us Inspiring us to love fully in return without reservation.

We pray that we will notice and value the subtle small moments that comprise our lives
And appreciate the joys present in each day.

8. Al Chet

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have sinned against life by failing to work for peace.

*We have sinned against life by keeping silent
in the face of injustice.*

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have sinned against life by ignoring those who suffer in distant lands.

We have sinned against life by forgetting the poor in our own midst.

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have failed to respect those who guide and teach us

We have withheld our love from those who depend upon us.

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have engaged in gossip and repeated slander.
We have distorted the truth for our own advantage.

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have conformed to fashion and not to conscience.
We have indulged in despair and trafficked with cynics.

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have given meager support to our Houses of Study.

We have neglected our heritage of learning.

Al chet sh-cha-ta-nu li-fa-ne-cha....
We have sinned against ourselves and paid scant heed to the life of the spirit.

We have sinned against ourselves and have not risen to fulfill the best that is in us.

Ve-al ku-lam, E-lo-hai se-li-chof,
Se-lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu!
For all these sins, O God of mercy,
Forgive us, pardon us, grant us atonement!

Ve-al ku-lam, E-lo-hai se-li-chot,
Se-lach la-nu, me-chal la-nu, ka-per la-nu!

For all these sins,
O God of mercy,
Forgive us, Pardon us,
Grant us atonement!

Avinu Malkeinu, be gracious and answer us for we have little merit, treat us generously and with kindness be our help

11. We Need One Another

We need one another when we mourn and would be comforted.

We need one another when we are in trouble and crave help, or when we are in the deep waters of temptation and a strong hand might pull us out.

We need one another when we would accomplish
some great purpose and cannot do this alone.

*We need one another in our defeats, when with encouragement we might strive again;
and in the hour of success, when we look for someone to share our bliss.*

And we need one another when we come to die, and would have gentle hands prepare us for the journey.

All our lives we are in need, and others are in need of us.

We best live when we bring to one another our understanding and our solace.
